

PLAYED TWO ROLES.

The Criminal Career of a Chicago Man Named Gordon.

An Insurance Adjuster in Day Time a Thief at Night.

LIKED THE MYSTERY.

He Enjoyed the Excitement of a Criminal's Life.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—The man giving his name as Gordon who participated in the Deerfield holdup and subsequent stirring events last Friday night and Saturday morning and who was identified as Billy Williams, a well known character on the Pacific coast, was again identified yesterday by responsible parties as H. P. Griswold, a well-to-do local inspector of the Manchester Assurance company. Griswold's father is said to be a traveling inspector of the Home Fire Insurance company of New York, and resides in that city. The people making the identification are officials of the Manchester Assurance company and they maintain they are not mistaken. It appears to be a case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

Griswold had no need to steal or shoot his fellow men, but he did it apparently because he loved the mystery and the excitement of such a life. Crime has apparently become a pastime with him, and he is supposed to have found an apt pupil in Lake, a poor, unemployed laborer. During the daytime Griswold filled the important position of fire risk inspector, which he used as a cloak for his marauding excursions during the night. About five years ago Griswold married a country girl and she became Mrs. Gordon, not Griswold. Since then they have lived in various parts of Chicago, their last residence being at 13 Curtis street. To-day the timid frightened wife called at the police station and gave her name as Gordon, saying she never knew her husband by any other.

It is believed that the police department, with the help of the railroad companies, are running to earth in this dual arrest a long train of deceptions of which Griswold is the center. The story of Griswold's life so far as known is unique. Born almost twenty-eight years ago, his father tried to give him a fair education, but the boy's instincts were wild and lawless. He eventually disappeared from home, and was next heard of in the West as a cowboy and ranchman. After several years of adventurous life in California, Oregon and Idaho, he came to Illinois and secured employment as brakeman at Rock Island, Ill. While there he married and the influence of his wife caused him to lead a quieter life. His father noting the improvement in his behavior, used his influence to secure the son a position with the local office of the Manchester Assurance Insurance company. Young Griswold grew proficient in his new position, and soon drew a handsome salary.

It appears, however, the reformation was not complete, but just when Griswold began his double career while in the employment of the assurance company is not known. Further disclosures are expected at the inquest over the remains of Detective Owens, which has been postponed for a week to permit the police to make a full investigation of Griswold's and Lake's careers.

William Lake, who was desperately wounded in the raid, was feeling better. It is said he comes of a good family and that his father is William Lake of Oswego, N. Y., a traveling man for a New York paper. Lake is a casket trimmer and had been out of work for months and he and his wife had been on the verge of starvation when, in company with Griswold, they made the sensational raid.

MARCHING TO PING YENG.

Gen. Yeh Effects a Junction With the Main Body of Chinese Troops.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The Times publishes a dispatch from Tientsin, dated August 23, stating that General Yeh, with 4,000 men, has effected a junction with the Chinese main body at Ping Yeng. The remainder of the force under General Nieb, is expected to arrive at Ping Yeng to-morrow. The dispatch adds that the retreat from Asan was brilliantly carried out. The troops marched through a difficult country, although they were harassed by the enemy along the whole route of their march. In breaking through the Japanese lines at Chungwa. The heat in Korea since July has been intense. China is about to address a note to the powers protesting against the king of Korea declaring his independence. The dispatch adds several of the powers are likely to recognize the justice of the protest because they are certain the declaration was under Japanese compulsion after the king was captured and that it was dated to make it appear voluntary.

BARKIS IS WILLING.

Ex-Vice President Morton May Run for Governor of New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Among the passengers who arrived on the steamer La Normandie yesterday was the Hon. Levi P. Morton, who was seen on the promenade deck of the steamer shortly after she dropped anchor in quarantine.

He evidently anticipated the reporter's questions, as the following note which he handed to those who greeted him will show:

"In reply to your questions I can only say that, although I have no desire to re-enter public life, I have received so many letters from personal and political friends in different parts of the state, urging me to allow the use of my name as a candidate for governor, now that I am at home, I shall feel it due them and the Republican party, which has so highly honored me in the past, to give the question serious consideration."

KOLBITES HAVE A SCHEME.

They Will Meet in a Legislature of Their Own and Elect a Senator.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 27.—A prominent Republican who was active in Kolb's interest during the recent campaign, is authority for the statement the Kolbites will meet in November, when the regular legislature meets, to convene a United States senator to succeed Morgan, who will, it is thought, be a Republican, and adjourn. They will then let their senator contest with Morgan, who will be re-elected by the regular legislature, for the latter's seat. The Kolbites figure the Republicans will be in the majority in the United States senate next year, and hope thereby to have their man seated. This will, it is thought, be the extent of the dual government of the Kolbites, as they cannot hope to prevent Oates from being governor.

JOHN NEWELL IS DEAD.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 27.—John Newell, president and general manager of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway company, died at Youngstown, Ohio, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon of apoplexy. Mr. Newell was at Pittsburgh Saturday and he was on his way from that city to Cambridge, Pa., for a few days' rest when he was taken ill.

General Sickness' Grand Scheme.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—General Daniel E. Sickles has a scheme for the creation of a grand national park which will include the battlefield and other historic points of interest at Gettysburg. The purchase of something like 4,000 acres in and around Gettysburg is embraced in the plan. The government already owns several hundred acres at the scene of the decisive battle of the war, and General Sickles proposes to acquire about 3,500 acres more. His plan contemplates the establishment of a military post at Gettysburg, a soldiers' home and an Indian school and perhaps a G. A. R. museum.

Many People Homeless.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Aug. 27.—Reports of general destruction and widespread devastation at Guerneville, the scene of Saturday's disastrous conflagration, continue to come in large numbers. The loss is about $120,000, with less than $20,000 insurance.

ALL WENT DOWN.

A Terrific Hurricane on the Sea of Azov.

Every Craft in the Storm's Path Went Down.

OVER 1,000 PERISHED.

Towns and Villages Swept Away by the Storm.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—A wind of death swept across the Sea of Azov yesterday. It will be impossible for days yet to compute the damage done, but it is almost certain that 1,000 have perished, some by drowning, others by being crushed under the falling houses and trees.

The excitement is great among the American colony in this city, for it is feared that at least two parties of American tourists were on the Sea of Azov at the time the wind did its deadly work. All the afternoon there has been a string of sailors at the office of American minister asking, almost begging, for news from Odessa, whence the tourists were to have started on the regulation sight-seeing trip across the Crimea, visiting Sebastopol, Balaklava and the other famous battle scenes.

At a late hour there was only a general report of the disaster to base surmises of the Americans' safety. The report recounts wide havoc. The wind was first felt at Nogaik. Nogaik is peopled mostly by fishermen who were out on the water.

When the hurricane had swept out to the north a terrible scene was presented. The village was razed—overturned—as if an immense plow had been pushed through it. Lying everywhere were women and children, dead or in their last agonies. The shallow waters of the sea of Azov were lashed to such a height that it was plain that every fishing boat must have been sunk.

The cyclone swept on to the northeast after wrecking Nogaik. Its path seems to have been unusually wide, for at Marinople it devastated the country to a point eleven miles inland and had its outer edge far upon the sea. Marinople was practically blotted out of existence. Not three houses in a hundred are left standing. It is estimated that 300 persons perished in this place alone. North of here the cyclone made a sudden turn to the east over Dolga points, its left edge inflicting slight damage to the town of Berdinsk. Houses were unroofed and a dozen persons killed by falling timber.

Once the storm made its full fury felt. Of the steamers that touch at the port of Berdinsk not one had come in at the hour of the latest report. Grave fears are expressed that every craft on the sea had gone to the bottom, and that every passenger is drowned. When the wind swept over the northern end of Azov it took a new course, going southerly along to coast of the land of the Black Cossacks. In turn Eisk and Achev were ravaged, each town being almost totally destroyed. Telegraph communication with this district is suspended, and it is impossible to learn the extent of the destruction, but at least 1,000 persons have died on the two shores. The storm as nearly as can now be learned, seemed to suddenly lose its force near Pomerink, and died off. Letters from a comparatively quiet southerly over the Black sea.

LOVE DID NOT RUN SMOOTH.

The Result Was a Tragedy in Which One Person Was Killed.

JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 27.—At Waddington, near Siloam Springs, Dr. Ott, a practicing physician, shot Miss Lizzie Craig in the back and then killed himself. Ott is a married man and has two children. He has long been in love with the girl, and she had given such encouragement to his suit that scandalous gossip started, and one of the results was an estrangement between Dr. Ott and his wife, who left him and went to Texas. Ott urged the girl more vigorously than before to elope with him, but her regard was not developed to so low a pitch, and she declined the invitation. The doctor threatened to kill the girl and himself if she finally rejected his suit, but she remained firm to keep within the law.

Last Thursday his family returned from Texas unexpectedly. He called immediately upon the young lady and had a talk with her. When she started to leave the room Ott caught her and shot her in the back. Then he put a ball through his heart and fell dead. Letters found on Ott indicated that Miss Craig had promised to marry him and he had resolved if she did not to kill her and himself. There was a pair of gold bracelets in his pocket, and his letter stated that they were to be placed on the arms of Miss Craig and that she was to be buried with them. Ott was an intelligent man and enjoyed a good practice in his neighborhood. It is thought the girl will recover.

STRUCK IN THE FACE.

Colonel Crofton Strapped by First Lieutenant Welch.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Colonel R. A. Crofton, commanding the Fifteenth United States infantry, was struck in the face yesterday by First Lieutenant B. C. Welch of Company E. Fifteenth regiment. Colonel Crofton was engaged in the work of changing guard mount. It is said the attack was entirely unprovoked on the part of Colonel Crofton. Welch was placed under arrest and will be tried before a court martial. The affair created a great sensation throughout army headquarters on the prairie west of Evanston, where the assault took place.

PRODUCT OF LEAD.

Report on This Subject Submitted by Special Agent Kierchoff.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—A report on the production of lead in the United States during the first six months of the year was submitted to the United States geological survey by Special Agent C. Kierchoff. It shows a heavy falling off in the quantity of lead drawn from domestic sources, and shows the decline in the price of lead and the prostration of the silver mining industry have very seriously affected the leading industry of the Rocky Mountain states and territories.

The production of the delivered lead amounted to 86,772 net tons, against 95,921 for the first six months of 1893, and of soft lead, 15,610 net tons, against 18,305 for the corresponding period of last year. The total production of refined lead was 102,382 net tons against 111,926 in the first half of 1893, the refined in bond amounting to 21,392 net tons, against 12,330 for the first half of last year. The lead available for home market aggregated 80,000, including 9,780 tons representing the contents of Mexican and Canadian ores. From American sources the lead production netted 71,204 tons, against 83,830 net tons during the first half and 80,050 in the second half of 1893.

The stocks of lead in refiners' hands amounted to 2,653 tons on July 1, as compared with 3,465 tons on January 1. The stock of soft lead was 2,060 tons in the beginning of the year, against 1,880 on July 1.

SILVER IN EUROPE.

Senator Wolcott Returns and Discusses the Monetary Question.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Senator Wolcott of Colorado, accompanied by his wife and stepson, were passengers on the La Normandie which arrived yesterday. Senator Wolcott said that during his trip abroad he had spent much of his time in England, France and Germany, the three countries most interested in the silver question. In Germany the feeling was almost in favor of bimetalism, but that country would make no move until England took the initiative. In England, Balfour and Chamberlain favored bimetalism and thought the system adopted in India was not satisfactory. Gladstone was opposed to bimetalism and Lord Roseberry would express no opinion on the question. The senator thought the time was not far distant when there would be an international agreement on the subject.

PULLMAN MECHANICS.

Report That They May Move to Hiawatha, Kan., to Work.

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—A meeting of about forty Pullman mechanics was held yesterday afternoon to consider the project of moving in a body to Kansas, where it is claimed work has been offered them. It was stated again at the meeting the men believed they would be given employment in car works to be built especially for them by a capitalist at Hiawatha, Kan. The leaders announced to the men the only step necessary for ex-employees of the Pullman company wanting work was to secure recommendations from the foremen of their respective departments. A committee was appointed to see that such recommendations were properly made out. It was also determined to send the committee to Hiawatha to carefully look into the scheme.

RAIN FOR THE PYTHIAS.

Knights of Pythias in Washington Greeted With a Fierce Storm.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—An unwelcome house warming was given the Knights of Pythias, encamped in the white city of tents around the Washington monument yesterday afternoon. It came in the form of a fierce thunder shower which swept over the city almost without warning and then settled into a steady rain until sunset. Several tents were dismantled by the sheet of rain, which beat against them and the lightning was unpleasantly sharp.

All of the discomforts incidental to the storm were accepted in hilarious mood by the knights, however, and they made fun under the canvas as with him, but their first drenching rain had passed over.

SEVENTY-FIVE WENT DOWN.

A Bridge at Fairmount Park, Kansas City, Gives Way Beneath A Crowd.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 27.—A sidewalk over a dry gully at Fairmount park gave way at 5:30 o'clock last evening, precipitating about seventy-five people to the ground, a distance of twelve feet. Between forty and fifty people were injured by the fall. Weak supports and an overcrowded bridge are responsible for the accident. None of the injured are fatally hurt.

Will Not Oppose Waite.

PUEBLO, Col., Aug. 27.—Hon. John C. Bell of Montrose, Populist member of congress from the Second congressional district, publishes a statement in a People's party and Waite organ in which he says that he is not a candidate for governor and will not allow the use of his name at the state convention here September 4. He disclaims having cast any slurs on Governor Waite. Mr. Bell has been in much talk of as a possible Democratic-Progressive candidate. His statement practically leaves the way clear for Waite's renomination, as no other man has been prominently urged in opposition to the incumbent.

Killed by an Officer.

PUEBLO, Ind. Ter., Aug. 27.—Deputy Marshal Ben Goode attempted to arrest a negro, Ed. Green. On demanding Green's surrender, the negro drew a pistol and pulled down on Goode, exclaiming: "We got you now, you." Goode was too quick for him and fired his revolver, the bullet striking the negro in the left breast, passing entirely through the body, killing him almost instantly.

ODD FELLOWS.

Trouble in Kansas Over the Orphans' Home, Lodge Settings.

The Orphans' home difficulty in Kansas is proving disastrous to the order. During the past few weeks the grand master has found it necessary to suspend 48 subordinate lodges for insubordination in resisting the payment of the $1.50 per capita tax for the support and maintenance of the De Boles Orphans' home. The membership of these lodges aggregates over 8,000 members, and they are cut off from all rights and privileges of the order not only in the subordinate lodges, but in the encampment, canton and Rebekah lodges as well.

Ohio has 62,000 members and has but 78 representatives in its grand lodge.

A member is due to be charged with dues from the time of his initiation.

The grand sire has honored Illinois by placing our distinguished brother, J. O. Humphrey of Springfield, as a member of the committee on appeals for the S. G. L.

An exchange truly says that the noble grand should be one of the best posted parliamentarians in the lodgeroom.

To Odd Fellows' wives it may be urged that they see that their husbands' dues to the lodge are kept paid.

The startling statement is made that 84 past grand representatives have died since Memorial day. Such excessive mortality is unusual.

Texas has 105 lodges, with 7,478 members. The receipts for 1893 amounted to $109,749.75.

Concordia Rebekah lodge of New York reports its assets as aggregating $3,897.57.

Odd Fellowship, drawing its inspiration from holy writ, rejoices in the fact that of all historic friendships none surpasses that of Christ.

The grand lodge of Oregon has appropriated $500 to enable the grand master to make official visits to the lodges.

A member of a lodge may not vote on any question relating to the fiscal affairs of his lodge in which he has a direct personal interest.

It is not lawful to allow the regalia of the order to be used in public in the performance of a drama on the stage, even though the drama shall be intended to illustrate the principles of Odd Fellowship.

The grand lodge of Arkansas voted $300 to the president of the Rebekah state convention for railroad fare for one year.

Every brother is an Odd Fellow for what he is, and not what he has.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

The Order Was Never in a Better Condition—Notes and Gossip.

The Royal Arcanum never was in better condition than it is today. It has on hand plenty of money with which to pay all claims as fast as they mature. Its claims are paid immediately upon presentation when the proofs are correct, as they have been for 17 years.—Supreme Regent Hazard.

The cost of $3,000 protection in the Royal Arcanum is considerably less than the same protection costs in the best managed old line company.

Agassiz council, North Cambridge, Mass., has compiled a neat card for its members, giving scale of assessment rates and other interesting information.

The form of application was amended at the seventh annual session of the supreme council, but the present form is legal until Oct. 1, 1894. After that date only the new form will be legal.

Jaqu Marx, Esq., of Clark council, No. 413, Springfield, Mo., has been appointed deputy grand regent for the three new councils recently instituted in southwest Missouri.

Samuel H. Rice joined Mount City council, St. Louis, July 7 and died of typhoid fever July 21. His family received $3,000.

KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

How a Lodge Increased Its Membership Here and There.

Prospect lodge, No. 2,198, New York, increased its membership over 78 per cent in the first quarter of this year by giving entertainments to which the families and friends of the members were invited. After awakening interest in the order an offer was made to take in new members free for a limited period, and the result was a large increase and a reduction of the average age from 50 to 42 years.

Three assessments were called in August. By a recent fire in Hudson, Mass., Hudson lodge lost everything except one ritual book and the members were invited to a picnic and the seal of the lodge.

The supreme lodge Knights of Honor has no control over the matter of sick benefits, except as provided by section 6, article 7, of the constitution governing subordinate lodges.

Should the office of grand reporter become vacant, the grand dictator alone, during the recess of the grand lodge, is vested with the power to appoint to fill the vacancy.

Red Men.

Sustain your new chiefs with your encouragement. Do not pick flaws. Do not be one that knows it all. In other words, be fraternal and forbearing.

The great sun's council fire of the great council of Rhode Island was kindled in the hunting grounds of Providence Aug. 14. The council was well attended. The Association of Tribes, composed of representatives of the various tribes of the Improved Order of Red Men in the city of New York, held a big picnic, including games and an Indian encampment, recently. There are 2,700 Red Men in New York city.

The ladies of the Macabees of Michigan are exceedingly busy humming in their hives.
